However, errors and omissions may occur and the user should not take the accuracy of the information completely for granted but should check directly with Additive. The material contained in this web site is not to be relied upon as a statement or representation of fact.

Additive have no control over the use to which the information may be put by the reader or user and accordingly shall not be liable for any loss of profits or contracts or any indirect or consequential loss or damage arising out of or in connection with the use of such information. The material contained in this web site is intended to be a guide only. The statutory rights of any individual or organisation dealing with Additive as a consumer or customer shall remain unaffected.

Transmitted Material

Any material or information transmitted to or posted to Additive's web site by any means will be treated as non-confidential and non-proprietary and may be disseminated or stored or used by Additive or its affiliates for any purpose whatsoever including and not limited to developing, manufacturing and marketing products. Do not post or transmit to or from this web site any unlawful, threatening, defamatory, obscene, scandalous, inflammatory, pornographic or profane material or any other material which could give rise to any civil or criminal liability in the territory to which this web site relates.

Hypertext Links

Linked sites are not under the control of Additive and Additive is not responsible for the contents of any linked site or any link contained in a linked site. Additive provides links to the user only as a convenience and the inclusion of any link does not imply any endorsement of the linked site by Additive. Additive cannot and has not reviewed all the websites that may be linked to this website and cannot be held responsible or liable for their content. Users link to other web sites at their own risk and use such web sites according to the terms and conditions of use of such web sites.

Security

Additive Insurance has implemented technology and processes to safeguard your privacy from unauthorised access and improper use and will continue to update these measures as new technology becomes available.

Third Parties

Additive cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of other web sites even if you access those websites using links from the Additive website; Additive recommends that you check the policy of each site you visit. In addition, if you linked to the Additive website from a third party web site, Additive cannot be responsible for the privacy policies and practices of the owners or operators or the third party web site from which you linked to our web site and recommend that you check the policy of that third party web site and contact the owner or operator of such web site if you have any concerns or questions.

Data Protection

Personal and Business details provided to Additive through this web site will only be used in accordance with our privacy policy. Please read this carefully before proceeding. By providing your personal details to us, you are consenting to its use in accordance with our privacy policy.

Privacy Policy

Additive respects the privacy of every individual that visits this site. Our policy on the collection and use of personal information is outlined below.

Additive only collects and uses personal information for business purposes in order to:

- administrate or otherwise carry out our obligations in relation to any service or product that Additive may supply
- anticipate and resolve problems in relation to any service or product that Additive may supply
- create and inform you of products or services that may better meet your needs.

Non-personal information

Additive may automatically collect non-personal information about you such as the type of Internet browser you use or the web site from which you linked to this site. You cannot be identified from this information and it is only used to assist us in providing an effective service on this web site. Additive may from time to time supply the owners or operators of third party web sites from which it is possible to link to our site with information relating to the number of users linking to our web site from such third party web site. You cannot be identified from this information.

Keeping our records accurate

Additive aims to keep any information held about you as accurate as possible. If you would like to review or change the details you have supplied us with, please contact us.

Information placed on your computer

Additive may store some information (similar to a "cookie") on your computer when you use our site. This information facilitates the efficient use of our web site.
